Christian group claims no one is safe
York University ecologist says apocalypse is something of a day-to-day reality

BRIGITTE NOËL
TORONTO@METRONEWS.CA

You don't have to repent — just recycle!

While evangelical Christian group Family Radio prophesies apocalyptic natural disasters for Saturday, environmental experts say this prediction may not be as far-fetched as it seems.

Ecologist Gail Fraser is an associate professor for the faculty of environmental studies at York University. She says that for people in her field, the apocalypse is somewhat of a day-to-day reality.

"You look across the world and there is massive habitat loss, there's massive habitat modification, there's species threatened with extinction," Fraser says. "In my mind, we're well on our way to screwing things up."

Family Radio's biblical interpretations state that no one is safe from this weekend's predicted disasters. While Fraser does not anticipate their forecast to materialize, she says some natural catastrophes are actually within our control.

She cites mudslides as one example of a preventable calamity. "One of the main reasons for mudslides is deforestation," Fraser says. "We've removed the organisms which would leave the hillside intact."

Sun's rays to amp up public schools

More than 300,000 solar panels will be installed on the roofs of hundreds of Toronto public schools at no cost to taxpayers, it was announced yesterday.

AMP Solar Ltd. Partnerships, the company that will install the panels, will spend more than $120 million to replace old roofs and will also give the school board a share in the profits from selling the solar energy.

"It's a win-win situation for everyone involved," said Chris Spence, director of education for the Toronto District School Board during an announcement Thursday at Hillcrest Community School, near Davenport and Bathurst streets.

Spence called it a groundbreaking partnership and the first initiative of its kind by a school board in North America.

About 450 schools will have solar installations.

The solar panels will generate up to 66 megawatts of green energy a year — enough to meet the needs of as many as 6,000 homes.

The power generated will be sold to the distribution grid for consumers, including the school board.

AMP Solar will be responsible for the construction, technology, power generation, financing, roofing, operations and maintenance of the panels. It will also pay the board rent for the space. TORSTAR NEWS SERVICE

Two men acquitted in Jordan Manners' death

No appeal: Crown attorney Boy found lying in C.W. Jefferys school stairwell with a .25-calibre bullet lodged in his body in May 2007

The two men accused of first-degree murder in the death of Jordan Manners were found not guilty Thursday, nearly four years after the 15-year-old died in Toronto's first and only school shooting.

It was the second trial for the two men, who were 17 when Manners was killed and can only be identified as C.D. and J.W. The first trial ended in a mistrial last year after four days of deliberations could not produce a unanimous verdict.

This time, the jury came back with acquittals in less than two full days.

"These boys have been in custody for a very long time."
DONALD MCLEOD, J.W.'S LAWYER

When the verdict was read, C.D and J.W. embraced their lawyers, while people in the courtroom cried out in surprise.

"I think it's a day for us to at least see that justice did the job that we believe should have been done today," said J.W.'s lawyer, Donald McLeod. THE CANADIAN PRESS

No Ward 9 byelection, for now

The City of Toronto has changed its mind — again — and will appeal a court ruling that invalidated Coun. Maria Augimeri's election last fall in Ward 9 York Centre.

City clerk Ulli Watkiss' surprise decision is the latest twist in an electoral roller-coaster. It puts on indefinite hold the July 25 byelection Watkiss ordered only last Friday when she decided not to appeal, saying a re-vote was needed to clear the "cloud" over the electoral process.

Thursday's flip-flop was hailed by Augimeri as "a step in the right direction because no one has ever challenged the validity of the ballots," only forms accompanying ballots cast by those not on the voter list.

Gus Cusimano, who lost to her by 89 votes and launched the successful court challenge, said Augimeri forced the city's hand by asking the courts to let her join Ward 4 school trustee Stephnie Payne's appeal of the ruling, which also invalidated her win. TORSTAR NEWS SERVICE

News in brief

Police chief takes SIU war to top court

Ontario's highest court has been asked to determine whether the province's Special Investigations Unit can pursue criminal investigations against former officers.

The case involves an attempt by Peel Region Police Chief Mike Metcalf to obtain a court injunction restraining the SIU from investigating a woman's complaint that she was sexually assaulted by a Peel officer nearly 30 years ago. Metcalf lost that battle last week and has instructed his lawyers to appeal.

The complainant wrote in an email to the SIU she did not wish any force to investigate the alleged assault, which she says occurred in 1981 or 1982.

The officer retired in 2009. TORSTAR NEWS SERVICE

We're on the eve of construction

It's summer road-repair season again Here's a guide to making your way around the GTA Oh, and watch out for that tree

It's construction season on provincial highways, and that includes heavily travelled segments that will affect commuters in the Toronto region this summer.

The province is spending $2.5 billion on 224 projects in 2011-12, Transportation Minister Kathleen Wynne said Wednesday. Road construction is expected to create about 17,000 new jobs.

Here's a breakdown of the major construction sites:

• Hwy. 427 on the southbound collector lanes from Mimico Creek to the CP Rail structure; a new transit-only lane from eastbound Eglinton Avenue to the Hwy. 427 southbound collector lanes, and the widening of the Dundas northeast and west ramp to two lanes. The work, expected to begin this month, is projected to be finished by the end of summer 2013.

• Replacement of bridge expansion joints and steel coating on the Burlington Skyway has already begun and is expected to continue until November 2012. All lanes will remain open during the day, with partial lane closures at night until October.

• Bridge construction and repairs will also begin this month on Hwy. 401 and Hwy. 403 in Chatham-Kent, Elgin County and Brantford.

• As part of the ongoing rehabilitation of Hwy. 401, which began last year, the westbound collector lanes between Keele Street and Kipling Avenue are being widened to provide an additional lane for westbound traffic by fall 2012. Repaving and bridge construction means that stretch will be down to one lane for some periods during the summer, the first of which is the weekend of June 25-26.

• The northbound Weston Road on-ramp to westbound Hwy. 401 will also be closed until the end of November.

• The province is also working with the non-profit group Trees Ontario to plant 200,000 trees along provincial highways this year. TORSTAR NEWS SERVICE

Mayor's bike plan to debut next month

Toronto cyclists and motorists will get a first look next month at Mayor Rob Ford's cycling plan, including a long-anticipated network of physically separated cycling lanes, says Denzil Minnan-Wong, who heads the Toronto Cycling Committee.

The network would connect separated lanes on Sherbourne, Wellesley, Harbord, Beverly, John and Richmond streets, said the city councillor for Don Valley East. The kind of physical separation — whether it be concrete or other barriers — from traffic isn't yet known.

But the proposed plan won't come at the expense of the controversial bike lanes that were painted on Jarvis Street less than a year ago.

Even though he doesn't support the lanes on Jarvis, removing them isn't a priority, Ford told reporters at city hall Thursday.

"Eventually, would I like to see them go? Absolutely. But is it a priority right now? I haven't got any documentation or anything like that. So no, it's not something that's going to happen immediately. It might happen, but whoever started this rumour, it's just a rumour for now," he said. TORSTAR NEWS SERVICE

Closing in on the con man

BERNARD WEIL/TORSTAR NEWS SERVICE

▶ The hunt for con man Richard Earl Rupert is an obsession for Det. John Dunlop and Det.-Const. Steve Walker, who presented the case at a financial crimes conference in Toronto.

His name is Richard Earl Rupert. He's well groomed, polite and charming. Police say he's also one of the most successful predators in North America, having defrauded seniors of hundreds of thousands of dollars going back perhaps 40 years.

He's also one of the most elusive con men police say they have ever encountered. They know what he looks like from 150 surveillance images across the country. He's 55, medium height and weight, with a ruddy complexion, receding hairline and short dirty-blond and grey hair, with a large nose.

Police have linked him to 44 thefts across Canada but they believe there are hundreds more, with an average take of $881. In one lucrative month, police determine his take was $8,000 — tax free.

"This is not a multimillion-dollar mortgage fraud," says Det. John Dunlop, "but once you add it all up, he's making a good living."

Police say Rupert slips into seniors' homes, posing as a long-lost nephew who needs a few hundred dollars for car repairs, or something else.

At a seniors building in 2009, he allegedly told an 81-year-old woman he was with building management and promised a rent discount for a $2,500 advance payment on rent.

Now armed with a Canada-wide warrant, two detectives say they can now arrest him anywhere in Canada. Det. Const. Steven Walker and Dunlop are obsessed with the chase.

On Thursday, they presented their case to 450 police officers at a conference of the financial crimes unit, formerly the fraud squad. "We need your help. This guy is prolific," Dunlop said to his peers.

Dunlop took up the chase in November 2009 as a detective with 32 Division. Even though he has moved on to Organized Crime Enforcement, he won't let this case go.

Walker first came upon Rupert 10 years ago and, although he has moved to another police unit, he's been given the authority to drop whatever case he is on to arrest Rupert once he is sighted again.

What galls the detectives most is that Rupert appears to be fearless.

One surveillance image has him in a seniors building walking nonchalantly past a wanted poster of himself before proceeding to a senior's room.

Some of his victims are blind or have dementia, police say.

"This is somebody's parents and grandparents," Walker says with a look of disgust.

Walker thinks the net is tightening on Rupert.

"He's either got to be extremely lucky or extremely good. He can't be both." TORSTAR NEWS SERVICE

Geologist isn't quaking over Judgment Day

- Professor says we need to know more about what makes the Earth move
- Huge population growth means any natural disaster has greater impact

BRIGITTE NOËL
TORONTO@METRONEWS.CA

Could an earthquake end it all?

It may seem as though natural disasters are on the rise, but Dr. Nick Eyles says this has nothing to do with the end of the world, as predicted by a Christian Evangelist group.

A professor of geology at the University of Toronto, Eyles says the illusion of increased disasters is due to rapid population augmentation in urban areas.

"Cities are getting bigger so they are more susceptible to natural hazards."

According to Eyles, earthquakes — like the one in Japan in March — claimed more lives than war, disease and terror last year.

"It doesn't mean that the world is ending or that the tempo of tectonic activity is increasing," he says.

"You have these huge cities here where even a moderate earthquake now can do a lot of damage, whereas in the past it wasn't the case," Eyles says.

Eyles believes more needs to be done to map out tectonic structures.

"We don't really know what's below our feet," he says. "We know that what's below our feet is moving all the time, but we don't know how it's structured, we don't know where the faults are."

The geologist says he gives no credence to Family Radio's Judgment Day predictions.

Unlikely disasters

These highly-improbable natural disasters are some worst-case scenarios scientists fear the most:

- Solar flares: These flares create electromagnetic pulses (EMPs) that have the ability to wreak havoc on electrical grids. Scientists say a powerful flare could cause trillions of dollars in damage.
- ARkStorms: This storm draws heat and moisture from the tropical Pacific, creating atmospheric rivers (AR) that take on the character of hurricanes and bring about massive floods.
- Cascadia fault: This plate boundary off the coast of the Pacific Northwest has the potential to create a tsunami of catastrophic dimensions.

You say two-four, Family Radio says no more

Ready to rock?

As many Canadians finalize their long weekend plans, the group behind the May 21 Judgment Day prediction is preparing for the end.

Tom Evans, spokesperson for evangelical Christian group Family Radio, says the week has been bittersweet. "The character of May 21 has nothing to do with preparing and stocking up food and that sort of thing."

Family Radio, founded by Harold Camping, has spent millions advertising what it predicts will be the end of the world. "We've told the world this and now it's in each individuals hands," Evans said.

The Earth-shattering quake the group prophesies will be "a greater, stronger earthquake than anything mankind has experienced," Evans said.

But asked about rumours the group spent its entire budget on the campaign, Evans said this isn't the case. "Family Radio would never endanger itself by using funds reserved for the maintenance and the running of Family Radio on this sort of thing."

And if May 21 comes and goes without the predicted globe-shattering quake?

"Then God is a liar," Evans said.

School board gets message, lifts ban on cellphones

The Toronto District School Board has lifted a ban on cellphones and other electronic devices in schools.

New rules approved just after midnight Wednesday, after hours of debate, give teachers the final say on whether to allow cellphones and laptops in classrooms.

Either way, they will be allowed in hallways. The new rules take effect in September.

Many board members argued that electronic devices, including cellphones, can effectively be used for learning.

A statement on the board's website said the decision recognizes "the evolving nature of such technology, its value as a tool to enhance student learning and support curriculum delivery, as well as the growing role it plays in social communication."

The ban was put in place in 2007.

Beware a 'subtle' killer

Forget natural disasters, everyday behaviours can doom us, expert says

BRIGITTE NOËL
TORONTO@METRONEWS.CA

Ecologist Gail Fraser says Family Radio's prediction of apocalyptic natural disasters for Saturday may not be totally far-fetched.

Disregard for the Earth's landscape can lead people to put themselves in situations susceptible to disaster. "You let people live in flood plains and they're vulnerable to flooding," says Fraser, associate professor for the faculty of environmental studies at York University.

While Toronto is not a flood plain, Fraser says its ravines are risky areas.

She recounts hurricane Hazel, which devastated the GTA with flood waters in 1954.

After the disaster, development ceased in the area's hard-hit ravines.

Fraser says the use of permeable surfaces helps reduce the risk of flooding.

"People like to think natural disasters will be the undoing of us, but I really think it's more subtle. It's going to be the everyday behaviours that people are engaged in."
GAIL FRASER, ECOLOGIST

This means favouring green spaces over concrete.

"A field will absorb water where a road will not."

Small gestures and responsible actions can also go a long way, adds Fraser.

She says consuming fewer goods, reducing our carbon footprint and buying locally are all viable ways to help.

Rookie MPs bask in camaraderie as they tour Parliament Buildings

They were warned about the perils of life in Parliament — the stress on their marriages, the strain on their health, the long hours, the tricky business of hiring the right staff.

But rookie MPs attending their freshman orientation session Thursday also got a glimpse of the camaraderie life on the benches breeds.

"In that room, no one had the logo Conservative, or Green or Liberal or whatnot, so it's just interesting to be with a great bunch of people for the 41st Parliament," said Dan Albas, a B.C. Tory.

"I think that the part that struck me the most is that we're all there to work together and find those common lines, because we have to work for the people of Canada and make sure their priorities are coming first and I think that's something all of us want to contribute."

"Ever since I ran for class president in Grade 6 it has been something that I've been working towards."

Bob Rae offers to be Liberals' interim leader

Bob Rae is shelving his long-term leadership ambitions to become interim leader of the devastated federal Liberal party.

The Toronto MP wrote his caucus colleagues Thursday to advise he is willing to let his name stand for the position of interim leader.

And he acknowledged that means he will have to give up thoughts of one day running to become the permanent successor to Michael Ignatieff, who resigned after leading the party to a historic defeat in the May 2 election.

"I shall abide by any rules about the interim leadership, agreed to by the caucus and by the (the party's) board (of directors)," he said in his letter.

"I have made it a watchword of my time in public life to practise the politics of unity and principled compromise. I shall continue to do so."

▶ Bob Rae, 62, is a former NDP premier of Ontario.

The party's directors have the authority to appoint an interim leader, based on the recommendation of the parliamentary caucus — which appears to overwhelmingly favour Rae.

The board said last week the interim leader must be bilingual and must promise not to seek the permanent leadership or engage in discussions about a possible merger with the NDP. THE CANADIAN PRESS

One condition

- In his letter to caucus members, Bob Rae laid down a condition of his own. He said he is only interested in being interim leader if the vote for permanent leader is put off for 18 to 24 months.
- A broad consensus has emerged in favour of a leadership vote in the fall of 2012.

Detained reporter back in B.C.

Journalist Dorothy Parvaz is back with her family in B.C. after being released from detention in Iran.

Parvaz hugged relatives on arrival at Vancouver airport. "Happy to be back and I'm anxious to be with my family," she said as reporters crowded around her.

The B.C. journalist was on assignment for Al-Jazeera's English news network when she was detained by Syrian authorities April 29.

The 39-year-old was deported to Iran, where she also has citizenship, and held in detention there. Nobody heard from her until Tuesday. THE CANADIAN PRESS

Sperm donor case won

Olivia Pratten, born as a result of donor insemination, has won her lawsuit seeking to end the anonymity of sperm and egg donors in B.C.

B.C. Supreme Court Judge Elaine Adair agreed the B.C. Adoption Act of 1996 is unconstitutional. The judge granted a permanent injunction against the destruction of donor records. B.C. has 15 months to amend the law. THE CANADIAN PRESS

‘Elaborate’ house arrest

Ex-IMF leader Dominique Strauss-Kahn granted $1M bail
Will stay in apartment in Manhattan, watched by armed guards

International Monetary Fund leader Dominique Strauss-Kahn will return to a New York City jail pending his release on bail.

Strauss-Kahn is charged with trying to rape a hotel maid and is likely to spend one more night at Rikers Island jail.

A judge set bail at $1 million Thursday, and approved an elaborate arrangement under which the 62-year-old diplomat and banker would be confined to a private apartment in Manhattan and monitored by armed guards.

Strauss-Kahn will also have to take out a $5-million insurance bond.

Prosecutors have said he should remain behind bars.

Media circus

- Scores of reporters lined up outside the courtroom door before the hearing, with still more journalists and cameras poised outside the building.
- State court system spokesman David Bookstaver said the media throng was one of the biggest since Mark David Chapman was arrested in the 1980 killing of John Lennon.

Canada’s banker up for IMF job?

Prime Minister Stephen Harper thinks Mark Carney is a wonderful central banker — others think so, too. The Bank of Canada governor, who has been named by Time magazine as one of the world’s most influential men, is being taken seriously in international circles as a possible replacement for disgraced International Monetary Fund head Dominique Strauss-Kahn. With Strauss-Kahn in a New York jail on a sex assault charge, calls for a permanent replacement have been growing. THE CANADIAN PRESS

10-1 London bookmaker William Hill has placed Mark Carney as a 10-to-1 pick for the prestigious job. Turkish politician and economist Kemal Dervis is the favourite at 5-to-2.

Not-so-Secret Service on Twitter

U.S. spy agency apologizes for employee's tweet
Post quickly taken down, but re-tweets keep it alive

The U.S. Secret Service should consider reverting to code.

The information gathering organization decided to open a Twitter account this month, and while it isn't regaling us with tales of terror raids and false moustaches, the organization is letting us know it isn't fans of Fox News — at least one employee isn't.

"(H)ad to monitor Fox for a story. Can't. Deal. With. The. Blathering," a tweet from @SecretService, the service's official account read Thursday.

The post was quickly taken down, but as the Secret Service probably knows, that which is posted on the World Wide Web rarely vanishes for good. Re-tweets of the offending message appeared on Twitter and others offered screen grabs.

And then there were the conspiracy theories:

"Secret Service tweet is now gone. Rogue agent? Or hackers? Would be sad if Secret Service was no more secure than Lindsay Lohan," tweeted TIME writer Amy Sullivan, who also retweeted the original post.

The Secret Service has since apologized. It also said the vanishing tweet had been posted by an employee with access to the service's account who mistakenly believed they were on their personal account.

But why are the Secret Service's Twitter novices watching Fox?

"Our public affairs employees monitor all the news channels throughout the day for stories that affect the Secret Service," Special Agent in Charge Edwin M. Donovan told ABC News.

Report blames company for U.S. coal mine blast

An independent investigation concludes the West Virginia coal mine explosion that killed 29 men last year was the result of safety failings by owner Massey Energy Co. and rejects the company's argument that a sudden gas buildup caused the blast.

The report released Thursday said Massey violated basic safety practices, including not ventilating the tunnels enough.

▶ In a recording released by the al-Qaida media arm, as-Sahab, Osama bin Laden addresses "the Muslim nation" and attempts to cast a role for the terror group in the changes sweeping the Arab world.

Bin Laden praises Arab Spring in taped message

Attempts to stake a claim for al-Qaida in protests led mainly by youth fed up with government abuses

In a recording made shortly before his death, Osama bin Laden praised the mass protests that have toppled and shaken longtime rulers across the Arab world while trying to cast a role for al-Qaida.

Bin Laden's message, released on militant websites Thursday, is an attempt by the terror leader to remain relevant after sweeping changes in which al-Qaida played almost no role.

"The winds of change will spread through the entire Islamic world, God willing," bin Laden said.

He proclaimed it a "religious obligation" to form a council that would provide guidance for all Muslims — apparently a way for al-Qaida to play a role in the protests' future.

While not mentioning al-Qaida by name, he advised people struggling against their governments to remember "those who advised early on the necessity of uprooting these oppressive regimes" — a clear reference to the militant group.

Though both bin Laden and the West have generally supported protest movements in the Middle East, their goals differ. The West hopes the protests will bring democratic reforms. Bin Laden and his followers hoped they would lead to governments based on strict interpretation of Islamic law.

Bin Laden was killed by U.S. Navy SEALs May 2.

IT'S JUST NOT CRICKET

Abbottabad bats zero

The city where Osama bin Laden was killed has been removed as the venue for a one-day international match between Pakistan's second-string cricket team and Afghanistan.

The Pakistan Cricket Board said Thursday that Abbottabad has been replaced by Islamabad, which will host the match on Wednesday.

The PCB didn't give a reason for the switch.

Afghanistan will be the first foreign cricket team to tour Pakistan since gunmen killed six police officials and a van driver during an attack on a Sri Lankan team bus at Lahore in March 2009.

Since then, Pakistan has hosted "home" series against international teams in United Arab Emirates, and also played "home" test matches against Australia in England last year.

Button it, CIA chief says

Leon Panetta has warned CIA employees that anyone caught leaking information about the operation that killed Osama bin Laden could face prosecution. In a memo, the CIA director told staff that the disclosure of classified information can endanger lives. The warning follows media reports that the CIA operated a safe house, as well as new stealth drone technology, to spy on bin Laden's hideout in Pakistan. THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

▶ A vehicle burns Thursday following a bomb attack in the northern oil-rich city of Kirkuk, killing at least 27 people and wounding 89, in the worst violence to hit Iraq in nearly two months.

Bloody blasts kill 27 people in northern Iraq

Kirkuk kidnappers also killed a policeman and Christian construction worker, dismembering the worker's body

A triple bombing killed 27 people Thursday and wounded scores outside a police station in Kirkuk, Iraq, heightening tensions in the northern Iraqi city already on edge after a string of kidnappings and attacks against security officers.

"The first blast, a bomb stuck to a car in a parking lot in central Kirkuk, lured policemen out of their fortified headquarters to investigate around 9 a.m.," said police Capt. Abdul Salam Zangana.

290

Located 290 kilometres north of Baghdad, Kirkuk has been an ethnic flashpoint for years among Kurds, Arabs and Turkomen, who each claim the oil-rich city as their own.

Three minutes later, a second blast rocked the lot when a car packed with explosives blew up in the crowd of police.

The third bomb, planted on a road leading to a hospital, set cars and trucks ablaze when it exploded about 500 metres away less than an hour later.

Zangana said it targeted a police patrol near a mosque.

ENVIRONMENT

China gets tough on polluters

China's environmental protection ministry is cracking down on pollution caused by lead and other heavy metals following a spate of poisoning cases and reports that much of the country is contaminated with toxic materials.

The new rules were announced late Wednesday, after dozens of children living near a battery plant in southern China's Guangdong province were reported sickened by lead poisoning.

Businesses and local officials will face criminal penalties for violations of the rules, which limit new projects and require tighter enforcement of environmental protection regulations.

Study looks at brains

A new analysis of some of the earliest mammals and mammal-like creatures shows their complex brains evolved in stages, starting with the regions that handle the sense of smell.

The tiny creatures that evolved into today's mammals "exploited a world of information dominated to an unprecedented degree by odours and scents," American researchers said.

‘Great Firewall’ designer pelted

Egg and shoes thrown at Chinese online censor

Chinese police were seeking the man who allegedly threw an egg and shoes yesterday at the computer scientist famous for designing China’s Great Firewall of web controls.

The attack — if true — is a particularly bold one for China and underscores how strongly people feel about the country’s strict Internet censorship.

A Twitter user posting under the name “hanunyi” claimed that one of the shoes struck computer expert Fang Binxing while he was visiting Wuhan University in Hubei province.

Fang reviled

Fang Binxing has felt the ire of the online community before. When he launched his microblog in December, it was taken down within hours after anonymous posters peppered it with hundreds of caustic or sarcastic comments.

Fang, president of Beijing University of Posts and Telecommunications, is popularly known as the “father of the Great Firewall” and is reviled by many Chinese web users.

An officer at the Luojiashan Public Security Bureau confirmed police were sent to the university to investigate a shoe-throwing incident that targeted Fang. The officer, who refused to give his name, said Fang was on his way to the airport.

Hanunyi posted a live account of the alleged shoe toss on his Twitter page, including photos of the door to the lecture hall where it happened, a hand clutching an egg in preparation and bare feet after he fled.

Red Shirts unite

Leaders of last year’s anti-government “Red Shirt” protests have registered their candidacies for a July 3 general election as the politics of the street converges with the politics of the ballot in Thailand. By chance, the ballot draw took place on the one-year anniversary of the army’s crushing of a two-month-long Red Shirt protest in central Bangkok.

Hudak sees tax as disharmonious

Provincial Tory leader would slash 8% from HST

PAWEL DWULIT/THE CANADIAN PRESS

Progressive Conservative Leader Tim Hudak made a $1.2-billion election promise Thursday to trim part of the HST from electricity and heating bills, as the Tories home in on pocketbook issues.

"The most unfair part of the HST tax hike is how it hits life's essentials, the things you can't do without, like the cost of hydro, natural gas and home heating oil," said Hudak, who has made energy costs a centrepiece of his campaign for the Oct. 6 provincial election.

Besides slashing the eight per cent provincial portion from the 13 per cent harmonized sales tax from residential hydro and home heating bills, Hudak said, a Tory government would remove the debt-retirement charge from home hydro bills. That would mean total tax relief of $275 per year for the average family.

"This debt-retirement charge has become nothing more than a permanent tax grab under the McGuinty government," said Hudak, who noted he plans to pay for the promise by killing the Liberals' Samsung wind and solar energy deal, among other things.

The announcement drew the ire of Finance Minister Dwight Duncan, who said the "reckless" measure would cost the province much-needed tax revenue. He charged that the Tories will slash health care and social programs to make up the difference.

Good news for those who thought their copies of Playboy were gone forever when their moms found them and threw them away.

Playboy launched a web-based subscription service Thursday called i.Playboy.com that allows viewers to see every single page of every single magazine — from the first issue nearly 60 years ago that featured Marilyn Monroe to the ones hitting the newsstands today.

"They no longer have to store 57 years — 682 issues — of Playboy under their mattress," said Jimmy Jellinek, Playboy's chief content officer.

Chicago-based Playboy has seen its circulation plummet to 1.5 million today from 3.15 million in 2006 and has been trying all sorts of gimmicks to attract readers in recent years. One issue included a set of 3-D glasses to better see a centrefold shot in 3-D; another turned over the cover to a cartoon character, Marge Simpson.

Jellinek calls the website "the world's sexiest time machine" and "an anthology of cool" for a magazine he refers to as "the Mount Rushmore of literary greatness."

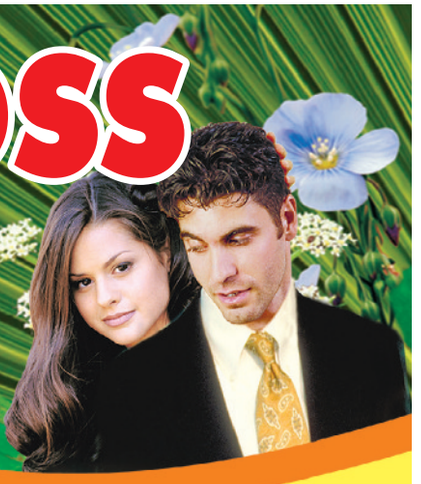
STOP HAIR LOSS



BEST IN CANADA #1 TOP SELLER CANADA

BIO-FEN PLUS™ is a natural health product used in the treatment of hereditary androgenic alopecia (AGA) in adults (male or female pattern baldness.) It contains scientifically calculated proportions of extracts of fenugreek seeds, saw palmetto berries and flax lignans. Each are known to possess an inhibitor of the enzyme responsible for causing male or female pattern baldness. It also contains a mixture of B vitamins, folate and biotin to help metabolize these herbal extracts so that they are more bio-available, and to support the growth of strong and healthy hair.

How does BIO-FEN PLUS™ work?

Specific compounds within the herbal extracts inhibit the 5-alpha-reductase (and therefore reduce DHT) to prevent or slow down the rate of hair loss. This process is the principle by which the prescription drugs such as Propecia (finasteride) work. However, BIO-FEN PLUS™ also contains additional compounds which remove excess cholesterol and testosterone – the building blocks of DHT.

BIO-FEN PLUS™ also contains vitamins to increase blood flow to the small capillaries that feed the hair roots, to deliver the active herbal compounds and remove waste. Therefore, BIO-FEN PLUS™ provides a natural, safer alternative to expensive drugs, and/or expensive & painful hair transplants. As with the prescription alternatives, results vary from person to person, and no one product will work for everyone.

How long must I use BIO-FEN PLUS™ ?

BIO-FEN PLUS™ capsules are usually effective at stopping hair loss within the first two months. However, since healthy hair grows only about 1 cm each month, it may take up to three months before you notice that hair growth is increased or further hair loss is stopped.

Anyone experiencing new growth will see it within four to six months. Once results become apparent, some users are able to reduce their BIO-FEN PLUS™ supplement dose to one capsule every second or every third day. Some clients will continue to take BIO-FEN PLUS™ daily. Once you stop completely, however, your hair growth pattern will slowly go back to the point where you started.

How safe is BIO-FEN PLUS™ ?

The ingredient combination in BIO-FEN PLUS™ is generally safe for most adults. However, the following cautions are advised:

Folic acid: Consult a health care practitioner if you are uncertain whether or not you are taking adequate vitamin B12, as folate supplementation can mask a Vitamin B12 deficiency.

▶ A vehicle transports a casket Thursday containing one of the Afghans killed by insurgents in Wazei Zadran near Kabul, Afghanistan.

Afghan militants kill 35 workers

Another 20 people at remote road construction site are wounded Eight insurgents also die in assault

Insurgents firing heavy machine-guns, rocket-propelled grenades and assault rifles killed 35 workers and guards in an attack on a NATO-funded road construction site in a remote area of eastern Afghanistan, authorities said Thursday.

More than 100 fighters carried out the assault in Wazei Zadran in a mountainous region of Paktia province near neighbouring Pakistan's lawless tribal areas, said Galaxy Sky construction company owner Noorullah Bidar.

He described the assailants as Taliban fighters, though there was no immediate claim of responsibility for the attack late Wednesday.

"This was a brutal attack."
NOORULLAH BIDAR, GALAXY SKY CONSTRUCTION COMPANY OWNER

The region is thought to be controlled largely by the Haqqani network, a fiercely independent branch of the Afghan Taliban and a major enemy of U.S. and NATO forces. The al-Qaida-affiliated network, led by ailing Jalaluddin Haqqani and his son Sirajuddin, is based in neighbouring Pakistan's tribal belt.

U.S. officials say Pakistan has not done enough to go after insurgent safe havens in the restive area, especially in North Waziristan where the Haqqanis are thought to be based. The issue is a sore point between the two countries and the area has been the target of repeated U.S. drone strikes.

About 85 people were at the construction site at the time of the attack, including some 65 guards recruited from surrounding villages, Bidar said. He said the firefight lasted about two hours and the insurgents shot down at the camp from a nearby hill. The fighting also destroyed a number of construction vehicles. THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Female grads expect lower salaries: Study

'Millennial generation' women also deemed more realistic than men

A new study finds Canadian women who are about to enter the workforce expect to earn less than men.

Researchers at three Canadian universities surveyed more than 23,000 university students and found women expect to earn smaller paycheques and wait longer for promotions than men.

University of Guelph researcher Sean Lyons says female students estimate their starting salaries will be 14 per cent less than what the men students forecast. After five years on the job, that gap widens to 18 per cent.

THE CANADIAN PRESS

Glass ceiling

Researchers also found women are more likely to want to balance their personal life with their careers while men prefer climbing the corporate ladder.

- A 2008 Canadian Labour Force Survey found university-educated women earned only 68 per cent of the salaries of equally qualified men.
- Women also expect to wait close to two months longer than men to get their first promotion.

SPEAKING OF THE APOCALYPSE ...

THE METRO LIST

ANDREW WALLACE
METRO

1 End days. According to Harold Camping, the head of the Christian radio network Family Stations Inc., the world will end Saturday. Apparently, an earthquake will shake the Earth and the true believers will be swept up to heaven, while the rest of us are left behind to bear witness to the destruction of all human life. From Camping: "We know without any shadow of a doubt it is going to happen."

Uh, OK?

2 Freedom of expression. Tyler, the Creator, the frontman for Odd Future and one of hip hop's weirdest up-and-comers, recently received the ire of one-half of Tegan and Sara for his misogynistic and homophobic lyrical content. The conversation took to the Twitterverse and somehow the issue morphed into a discourse on free speech. This, of course, isn't a free speech issue — it's an idiot-with-a-platform issue.

"Apparently, an earthquake will shake the Earth and the true believers will be swept up to heaven, while the rest of us are left behind to bear witness to the destruction ..."

3 Librarians. The profession is under threat in Ontario and elsewhere. In a world where e-books are booming and cellphones provide instant access to more information than anybody could ever need, an old-time curator of ink-and-paper products seems both obsolete and irrelevant. But librarians are still a wonderful resource. A library reconceived for the information economy could be more valuable than ever, and a librarian calibrated to meet today's information challenges could be its greatest asset.

4 The Biebs. This week Forbes announced that Justin Bieber, the boy wonder from Stratford, Ont., is officially the third most influential celebrity in the world. He has made teen girls swoon, sold out a world tour and starred in a top-grossing film, not to mention selling his footwear and hair on eBay for $5,500 and $40,558, respectively. Apparently, that's the stuff influence is made of. Speaking of the Apocalypse …

5 James Frey. The famous author (and noted liar) is on tour in Canada to promote his new book, The Final Testament Of The Holy Bible. On Wednesday, he was in Toronto to discuss the work with Indigo "chief book lover" Heather Reisman, which will surely be a boon for sales. In today's world, liars remain unpunished — instead, they seem to be roundly rewarded.

6 The Gos. It looks like Canadian kid Ryan Gosling is going to try his hand at directing. Word is The Notebook heartthrob will star in his own directorial debut, a remake of the 1980s musical The Idolmaker. Bieber may be Canada's most influential celebrity icon, but the Gos is the Canadian Renaissance man. He acts, he produces, he sings and now he is going to direct. Also, like Ferris Bueller, he seems to be a righteous dude.

WHITE ROCK, B.C. Prime Minister Stephen Harper's latest Senate appointments must be called into question. Senators are to be a check on the prime minister, his cabinet and his House of Commons majority. They have the responsibility of providing "sober second thought" from their appointed positions. Appointing defeated candidates to the Senate cannot be considered otherwise than directly conflicting with this responsibility.

Have Harper's purely partisan personal appointees committed to voting as he pleases? Is that not vote buying? Is Harper not again in contempt of Parliament in making such appointments?

Neither abolishing nor electing senators serves the purpose that the chamber was meant to serve when Canada came into being. A process that will enable the Senate to play its designated role that Harper has completely destroyed is to have senators appointed by the Governor General upon the recommendation of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada.

She may be a little slow on the draw, though

The highest court in Oregon unanimously ruled Thursday that retired bus driver Cynthia Willis can have her medical marijuana and a concealed handgun, too.

The ruling issued in Salem, Ore., upheld previous decisions by the Oregon Court of Appeals and circuit court in finding that a federal law barring criminals and drug addicts from buying firearms does not excuse sheriffs from issuing concealed weapons permits to people who hold medical marijuana cards and otherwise qualify.

"We hold that the Federal Gun Control Act does not pre-empt the state's concealed handgun licensing statute and, therefore, the sheriffs must issue (or renew) the requested licences," Chief Justice Paul De Muniz wrote.

Willis welcomed the ruling.

"I feel like a big girl now," she said. "I feel like a real human being now, not just a source of revenue to the county."

Oregon became one of the first states in the U.S. to authorize people to use marijuana to treat medical conditions when voters approved an initiative in 1998.

God declares your responsibility to warn all peoples under your authority.

John 15:13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Ezekiel 33:6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

NO MAN KNOWS THE DAY OR THE HOUR?

Daniel 12:4 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased. [At the end of time, Man will know!]

The Bible declares that "No Man Knows" is describing the unsaved condition of mankind. If you are saved then we may know all things spiritually discerned in God's Word.

1Cor 2:10-19 But God hath revealed them [true gospel] unto us [true believers] by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things[true gospel] , yea, the deep things[true gospel] of God. 12 Now we [true believers] have received, ~ the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things [true gospel] that are freely given to us [true believers] of God. 14 But the natural man receiveth not the things[true gospel] ~ for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them [=No unsaved man knows!] because they are spiritually discerned. 19~ we have the mind of Christ.

Noah knew when the flood would occur, Abraham was told of the destruction of Sodom, In fact, Amos 3:7 shows, God required Himself to declare every judgment before it occurred

Amos 3:7 Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

HAROLD CAMPING A PROPHET?

In Camping's book1994? he discovered an important end date for this world. However, because God had not finished revealing all the truths of the timeline in the Bible, Mr. Camping misunderstood the significance of that end date against the language in Matthew 24:22 "Except those days be shortened there should no flesh be saved ". This language led him to believe God was speaking of the end of the world. The only correction to Mr. Camping's work in the book 1994? is that this language "those days be shortened" was pointing to the all important end of the first half of The Great Tribulation. The significance is; The first half was a period when virtually no one was being saved. It wasn't until the second half of The Great Tribulation (Which we are at the end of now) when God started the ingathering that He describes as "The latter rain" where "A great multitude that no man can number" shall be saved.

Mr. Camping's work remains viable today because this crucial milestone helps us know for certain when the second part of The Great Tribulation began.

Critics ignore the "?" in the title and the fact that Mr. Camping was quite clear in his book that 2011 was an alternative year for the end of the world.

Through the efforts of thousands of critical listeners, all doubt has been removed regarding the faithfulness of Harold Camping's study of "God's Time line of History"

Using The Bible's definition of "Prophet" as one who brings the truth of God's word then Harold Camping and those who have validated his work are the real deal.

CHRIST DID KNOW?

Mark 13:32 But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the son, but the Father. Notice that Mark 13:32 does not say "Christ" does not know. It is easily proved that the language "the son" cannot be pointing to Christ as follows:

The original Greek did not use capital letters in the word "son".

1Cor2: The Spirit of God knows all things.

Col 2:9 For in him [Christ] dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

To say "Christ does not know all things" is to say Christ did not have the Spirit of God in him. This is blasphemy against the Holy Spirit. Who else could "the son" be pointing to? Satan is called "The son of perdition" "The angels in heaven" is pointing to "The fallen angels" which were cast out heaven when Christ went to the cross. Rev 12

A multitude of faithful Bible students, that no man can number, agree:

The end of this world, beginning on MAY 21 2011, is established by God's Word The Holy Bible and God will shortly bring it to pass.

A MESSAGE OF HOPE:

The date of judgment has been set by God, is declared in "The Holy Bible" and is being understood by a great multitude that no man can number. Our heartfelt prayer is that all readers take earnest heed of this warning and "Cry out to God for mercy" while you "Search" for truth on your own. Go to www.timehasanend.org and compare its faithfulness to The Bible for yourself. Psalm 51:17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

▶ Johnny Depp stars in Pirates of the Caribbean: On Stranger Tides, the fourth movie in the Pirates franchise.

Reel Guys

RICHARD CROUSE & MARK BRESLIN
SCENE@METRONEWS.CA

It's time to jump ship

Richard Crouse and Mark Breslin debate Pirates of the Caribbean: On Stranger Tides Mermaids are great, but not much else to write home about

Richard Crouse: Mark, my main question after watching the new Pirates movie is, If this was the first one of the series would we have had a two, three and four? I don't think so. It's a big splashy epic, but lacks the fun and Johnny's joie de vivre of the original. What say you, matey?

Mark Breslin: Richard, I wasn't even a fan of the original. And no franchise should exceed a trilogy unless the words "godfather" or "cheerleaders" are in the title. An appreciation of this movie is contingent upon how you feel about Johnny Depp and how much swordplay you can handle. I adore Depp's brilliant characterization in the series, but really, the tricks are starting to show their age. And I didn't like swashbuckling even when Douglas Fairbanks did it in 1932. Still, I thought this edition of Pirates was the best since the original, whatever that means.

RC: I don't think this one has the spark of the others. It's not as funny, Depp seems like he's gone back to the Captain Jack treasure chest one too many times and the action scenes, despite the 3-D, don't fly off the screen the way they have in the past. I liked the mermaids and think their attack sequence is the most exciting thing in the movie, but I may be wrong simply because the movie is so dark I may have missed something.

MB: Oh, those mermaids! Who knew they spoke in a Scandinavian accent? Yes, they are the most exciting thing in the movie, although I did enjoy Ian MacShane's villainy. But despite the fountain of youth plot device, these Pirates are getting old. And you're right about how dark the film is: I was straining to make out which pirate was which. Quick clue: Depp is the Pirate Who's Had A Bit Of Work Done.

RC: Ha! Perhaps playing the same character four times in eight years is too much for Depp, or perhaps the limitations of Captain Jack are becoming apparent but he's not as entertaining as before. Not that director Rob Marshall helps him. The action sequences are as well choreographed as you might expect from the man who made Chicago and Nine, but they are also as exciting as you would expect from a man who specializes in making musicals.

MB: I see what you're getting at. For the next instalment, make it a musical complete with a chorus line of mermaids!

Cooper loves his wolfpack

Hangover star says bond with co-stars is the secret ingredient for movie's success Sequel gets darker

STEVE GOW
SCENE@METRONEWS.CA

Although the antics are amped up in The Hangover: Part II, star Bradley Cooper admits shooting the anticipated comedy was at least easier than the first.

"There's a certain amount of ease in knowing the character — having all this history," said Cooper recently in Toronto. "There was a lot less preparation because the preparation was already (in doing) a movie. That's a hell of a lot of rehearsal time to have another movie under your belt."

With the 2009 surprise hit earning a stunning $467 million US worldwide, there will be a lot of eyes on Part II and the comedy's unfolding plot about a bachelor party gone wrong. This time, Cooper and company travel to Bangkok, Thailand and have to uncover the events that led to a face tattoo, the disappearance of the bride's 16-year-old brother and a mysterious drug-dealing monkey.

"The stakes are so high in this movie. It gets darker and because of that the three of us have to go to places making it believable but you have to deal with these crazy circumstances," Cooper said.

He explained that the movie's secret is in the camaraderie with co-stars Zach Galifianakis and Ed Helms.

"It's the reason I would do seven of these movies … it was just really wonderful to see what would come out of that — things that weren't in the script," he said.

For The Hangover: Part II, the writing doesn't end on the page either as Cooper and company have been credited for bringing some of the biggest laughs while improvising during the shoot.

"Comedy has to happen fast," insisted Cooper. "It's like music and especially when the three of us are working, it's nice — you really get in the groove, everybody's in the right gear and it just starts flowing."

Monkey

Bradley Cooper on working with Crystal the monkey.

"The monkey is on Phil's shoulder most of the movie and there's one scene in Bangkok where an elephant is in the background. Do not have a monkey and an elephant walk down the same street in Bangkok because she just dug herself into my shoulder."

Kung Fu Panda 2 a 'passion project'

Sequel gets a new director who was excited to step up to the plate Crew watched kung fu movies in down time

PHIL BROWN
SCENE@METRONEWS.CA

For anyone with a place in their hearts for kung fu movies and absurdly cute CGI animals, the release of Kung Fu Panda 2 is cause for giddy excitement. The first film was a critical success that also cleaned up at the box office in 2008 and Dreamworks Animation began work on the sequel shortly after it opened in theatres.

Jennifer Yuh Nelson was key member of the creative/design team on the original Kung Fu Panda and was promoted to director for this second outing.

ETHAN MILLER/GETTY IMAGES

▶ Jennifer Yuh Nelson

Speaking to Metro, the filmmaker said she was thrilled to return. "I was always ready to keep going regardless of whether I was the director or not and a lot of the same group stayed on because everyone loved the first movie so much. It was always a passion project for everyone involved and that continued on the sequel."

Creating a CGI animated film on this scale was a huge undertaking for the director, who worked on the project for three years before it was complete.

"We didn't start seeing finish animated sequences until about a year and a half out," admitted Nelson. "It trickles in a little at a time and it's always a shock when you're working with rough black and white storyboards that you're used to and then all of a sudden you see the same scenes in gorgeous colour animation. It's a big jolt for the crew, because you suddenly realize what the final film will look like."

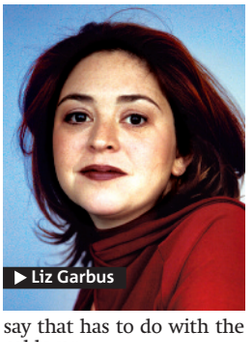
▶ Kung Fu Panda 2 opens in theatres next Friday.

To help break up the tedium during the long production, Nelson said the crew would hold "kung fu movie lunches," watching an endless list of classic titles in the genre to inspire the vast team of animators.

"We'd watch everything from Drunken Master to Kung Fu Hustle," said the director. "That's one of the reasons why these movies aren't parodies. They are a homage to movies that we all really love."

The mystery of Bobby Fischer

PHIL BROWN
SCENE@METRONEWS.CA



▶ Liz Garbus

It would be hard to find a more mysterious figure in the 20th century than Bobby Fischer. From teenage chess prodigy to international celebrity to his final years as a distraught recluse, Fischer led a fascinating life in and out of the public eye. And despite his considerable fame, it was never easy to get a sense of who Bobby Fischer was.

Frequently cold and distant at his peak and fearful of the media in his later years, Bobby Fisher's greatest legacy might not be his chess career but the mystery that he created, intentional or not. Fortunately award-winning documentary filmmaker Liz Garbus attempted to unravel this mystery with her latest project, Bobby Fischer Against The World. Through hours of interviews and an amazing collection of archival footage, Garbus was able to compile the most complete portrait of Fisher to date.

"I think he occupies a very unique position in our culture," Garbus told Metro. "I don't think there's been any other North American chess personality to occupy that kind of space in our consciousness and I would say that has to do with the cold war.

"There were two arch enemies with nuclear weapons pointed at each other while these two gentlemen were sitting down playing war over the chessboard. So the context was huge."

Since Fischer spent most of his life as a recluse, appearing publicly only to make controversial rants rooted in mental illness, he proved to be a difficult figure for the filmmaker to depict. Thankfully, Garbus admirably didn't shy away from the darker aspects of his life.

"I think that kind of relentless pressure on a young mind can really be dangerous and you see that play out," explained Garbus. "I felt great empathy for what Bobby went through and I think that's an important message of his story."

The First Grader
Genre: Drama
Director: Justin Chadwick
Stars: Naomie Harris, Oliver Litondo, Tony Kgoroge
◍◍◍
The First Grader tells the true story of Kimani Ng'ang'a Maruge, an 84-year-old illiterate who lost his family during Mau Mau uprising and was the oldest man in history to start public school when the Kenyan government instituted free education. As you'd expect, the film is an inspirational drama determined to empty its audience's tear ducts at all costs. Maruge's life is worthy of cinematic tear-jerking and the talented cast led by Oliver Litondo and Naomie Harris do justice to real people who inspired the film.

Last Night
Genre: Drama
Director: Massy Tadjedin
Stars: Keira Knightley, Sam Worthington, Eva Mendes
◍◍◍◍
The unraveling of four people takes place in a single night, resulting in intense, unforgiving drama. It's alarming how easily the Reeds' seemingly solid marriage is thrown off course by a third party, and then a fourth. The actors put in dynamic, brave performances, daring not to be liked when we put our faith in them and they betray us. Tadjedin builds the film to an excruciating climax in the form of a claustrophobic chamber piece.
ANNE BRODIE

Forks over Knives
Genre: Documentary
Director: Lee Fulkerson
◍◍
An anti-meat manifesto that attempts to shame carnivores with both scientific arguments and the aggressive re-branding of vegan as a manly endeavour (as in a sequence with a granola-loving MMA fighter), Forks over Knives is by turns persuasive and irritating. Certainly Lee Fulkerson's documentary presents plenty of good evidence that diet eschewing animal products promotes good health. The problem is that the facts are presented in such a slanted and ideologically rigid manner that the film will likely alienate the very meat-and-potatoes constituency it means to sway.
ADAM NAYMAN

The National Parks Project
Genre: Documentary
Directors: Peter Lynch, Jamie Travis and others
◍◍◍
A wildly ambitious mix of styles and genres united by an explicitly ecological theme, the National Parks Project culls together thirteen short films shot across each of Canada's provinces and territories. Each segment is shot in a provincial park by a single director, working with a trio of musicians to create a kind of visual/aural poem. Not surprisingly, certain passages are more interesting than others, though there's a sense of aesthetic continuity throughout.
ADAM NAYMAN

A Beautiful Life
Genre: Drama
Director: Andrew Lau
Stars: Liu Ye, Shu Qi, Tian Liang
◍◍◍
A romantic change of pace for director Andrew Lau, A Beautiful Life tells the story of an honest cop who falls for a damaged woman recently spurned by an affair with a married man. She eventually runs off with most of his life savings, but returns to reclaim their love only to find the cop now suffering from dementia. At times corny, but ultimately moving thanks to strong performances from the cast and gorgeously expressive cinematography from Lau, who shoots his own films.

Black Tower's Look of the Day

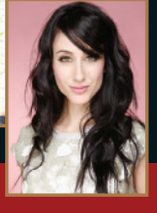
"I love casual combinations that mix the feminine with the masculine. Our Metro reader pairs the popular lace trend of this season with an oversized vintage military jacket. She creates shape by cinching in the waist with a drawstring, and her look is tipped in favour of retro-feminine with the sheer scalloped edge of her hemline, cork wedge brown sandals and oversized sunglasses. This look channels '60s It Girl with 21st century edge. Let's show off our legs this season, ladies!"



All week in Metro, noted stylist Alissia Marciano's spring style tips appeared in Black Tower®'s Look of the Day. And the next time you're at the LCBO, why not grab a newly redesigned bottle of Black Tower® Rivaner ($8.95). Cool and crisp, it's the refreshing way to end your day.

RBC Royal Bank®

Which is better?

A. Paying prime + ½% with an RBC Homeline Plan® credit line.

or

B. Keep paying prime + 1% at your bank.

Switch to an RBC Homeline Plan® credit line at 3.5% (prime + ½%)

You could save more than $2700†. If you're paying 4.0% (prime +1%) or more today on your home equity credit line with your bank, that's how much interest you could save by switching to the RBC Homeline Plan® credit line.

Switch to RBC Royal Bank, and we'll even pick up your switch* costs – now that's a lot of savings.

Visit any of our convenient branches or speak with your local RBC Royal Bank® mortgage specialist today. 1-866-864-0420

Advice you can bank on™

*We will pay the basic title insurance fee (not including migration fee), appraisals/property valuation fee and one discharge/switch out fee at another financial institution (up to $225 maximum). Offer excludes mortgage prepayment charges that you may have to pay. Minimum advance $50,000. †Savings based on $100,000 secured line of credit paid down monthly over 10 years comparing a 3.5% annual interest rate to a 4. 0% annual interest rate. #60

ACNE
Eczema
Psoriasis
Rosacea
Rashes

By Dr. C. Hammoud Ph.D.

■ I had terrible Acne for 3 years and tried Benzoyl Peroxide, Proactiv, Aloe Vera and others. After 4 days taking the Bell natural product #60 it started to clear up my skin. My skin changed from terrible to beautiful. Mylene Theriault, 19, Sorel-Tracy, QC ■ In 2 days my son's face completely cleared up of acne. My son is 15 and suffered for 3 years. We used many products like laser, Clean Clear, Neem that did not work or burned his skin. Veronica Marden, Seminole, TX ■ Unbelievable acne free beautiful skin Last couple of years I had acne and tried every product like Murad, Proactiv and antibiotics. Results with #60 were unbelievable. Thanks for giving me beautiful skin and my self-esteem. Nelisa Royer, 28, Doral, FL ■ Within 6 days eczema cleared up completely. I believe #60 addresses the cause internally instead of the symptoms. Latifa Boutshik, 43, North York, ON ■ I had severe psoriasis over 95% of my body. Last 5 years I have stunned every doctor and dermatologist. I spent tons of money on remedies. After I got Bell #60, I've never seen anything work as fast in my life. Within 2 days I saw my skin clearing up. I'm speechless. It was inexpensive compared with what I spent before. Jessica Shantz, 25, Dawson Creek, BC ■ All statements made on the Bell website are sent by delighted users. All are real people. Most have listed phone numbers and can be called for advice. No money is paid to them. Their reward is the relief they are getting. All say #60 works within days not months, not years. It's more effective than what they used before. It is less expensive (some acne suppliers ship monthly and charge monthly, which may amount to large sums yearly). No side effects were reported on #60.

Guaranteed better than all others they used say dozens of delighted users with full names and towns on the Bell website. Works by cleansing blood inside rather than attacking skin from the outside and leaving the actual cause untreated. Here are a few examples:

Allergies are a modern epidemic

#24

It really works! 100% natural. Try it risk free. Relief Guaranteed or Money Refunded! ■ Last 4 years in spring I had allergy attacks with runny nose, sore throat and headaches. Just 2 capsules Bell Allergy Relief #24 brought relief. Belinda Wilfong, 41, Hillsboro, MO ■ For 20 years my life was miserable with sneezing, watery eyes and sinus pressure year-round on most days. I was amazed. On 3rd day all allergies were gone. It was like magic. Becky Gerber, 25, Dover, OH ■ Golfing without allergy attacks I tried all the medications and none worked. After taking 1 capsule in the morning I'm completely free of all symptoms. Richard Gamez, 74, San Antonio, TX ■ God bless you I went from doctor to doctor for years with allergy sinus problems. The medications made me still sicker. After starting Bell Allergy Relief one capsule at night I felt like born again the next morning. Therese Noto, 58, New York, NY

#30

WRIST PAIN

Bell Carpal Tunnel Syndrome #30 gave quick relief within an hour. I was hand milking cows and began having weakness, numbness and pain shooting up my arms. Pain increased at night. My doctor suggested surgery as the only option. Not true! The pain and numbness are all gone after taking #30. I can do now whatever activity I want. Marjorie Wilson, 55, Dubuc, SK ■ I'm a car mechanic. Holding tools was getting increasingly difficult because of wrist and tendon pain. After 2 weeks on #30 I'm fully productive again. Cancelled scheduled surgery. William Marrero, 56, Miami, FL ■ I was wearing wrist braces. A woman saw it and told me she had relief right away with #30. I got some same day. It worked for me as well. Thanks a million. Diane Frank, 49, North Battleford, SK ■ I'm a nurse and work with my hands all day. I experienced increasing pain in my hands and fingers. Surgery was the only option I was told. My husband found #30 for me. I have no more pain or inflammation since. You have a life long customer. Nina Wallace, 52, Dacula, GA

What does Lady Gaga's handwriting say about her?

CARLY BALDWIN
SCENE@METRONEWS.CA

The estimable Lady Gaga served as Metro's guest editor on Tuesday and we got her to answer some of our questions in her own handwriting.

Which, of course, raises the question: What does Lady Gaga's penmanship say about her?

Metro consulted Dennis Duez, a Pittsburgh-based handwriting analyst who has scrutinized the writings of Britney Spears (she's very obstinate) and former New York Gov. Eliot Spitzer (he needs romance, but does not trust it). After taking a look at Gaga handwriting samples, Duez deduced:

• Lady Gaga is a strongly independent, and a my-way-or-the-highway person, as evidenced by her straight up and sometimes slanted slightly to the left lettering.

She believes that her way is the right way, said Duez. Critics beware!

• Gaga does not like to be misunderstood, as evidenced by copious amounts of printed text and is a strong communicator. See open tops on lower case "O," "A," and "D" characters.

• Her handwriting evidences a strong performance talent, indicated by the broad "T" bar crossings.

• Honesty is critical for Gaga; when someone lies to her they are gone, gone, gone, said Duez. See the constant use of uppercase, cobra strike "S" through out her writing.

• Apparently, there is an old relationship that has not quite faded from Gaga's memory, theorizes Duez. It may still return, unbidden, in dreams, he said. See the beginning arc in the ending "y" in "humanity."

•And, our personal favourite: There is evidence of a strong impact to Gaga's left leg/knee/shin area. This shows up on the dent on the "g" at the end of "unassuming" and in several other "y" characters in her handwriting sample.

Glover is not the first comedian to make the jump to musician Metro looks at those who have done it before

PAT HEALY
SCENE@METRONEWS.CA

JORDAN STRAUSS/GETTY IMAGES

▶ Donald Glover is making the crossover from comedian to musician.

In the early days of film and television, variety was king. Elvis had starring roles, the Rat Pack all sang in their movies and while Jackie Gleason had one of the highest-rated shows on TV as a bus driver with a comically short fuse, he was also releasing albums of romantic mood music.

But as the modern entertainment industry evolved, the public gradually became less accepting of stars who established themselves in one medium, then tried to succeed in another.

But now that reality television is the norm, the world might be more accepting of a comic actor who turns to music, like Donald Glover.

As Troy, the naive and excitable former jock on NBC's Community, he is hilarious, and as a rapper leading Childish Gambino, Glover is more than proficient, rocking a shockingly different persona than viewers may have thought they knew. Here are a few others who crossed over.

Steve Martin

Martin always put goofy songs on his comedy albums but his 2009 album, The Crow: New Songs for the 5-String Banjo, proved he could gracefully transition into a medium that requires players to be well-versed in its tradition. It also helps when Earl Scruggs guests.

Eddie Murphy

After tucking funny songs between comedy tracks on his albums, Murphy decided to take music seriously.

His Rick James-produced anthem, Party All the Time, went to No. 2 on the charts in 1985. Most of his follow-up singing work was met with less enthusiasm. Whatzupwitu, a 1993 duet with Michael Jackson, made listeners wonder the same about Murphy.

Adam Sandler

Sandler mastered the funny-guy-with-the-guitar thing on Saturday Night Live, and some of the songs on his first two comedy albums were absurd enough to make your stomach hurt.

But 1997's What's Your Name? is all songs, and though the musicianship is impressive, the lyrics fly somewhere between funny and sincere, and it falls flat.

THE BEST TIME OF THE YEAR

SOUND CHECK

ALAN CROSS
SCENE
@METRONEWS.CA

Today is one of my favourite days of the entire year: the Friday leading into the first summer long weekend. After a cold winter and a cool, and for many, disastrously wet spring, Canadians are possessed by hopeful optimism about what the next four months will bring. This means it's also time to load up on some new music.

Ben Harper/Give Till It's Gone (Out now): Most of Ben's best records have been released in either the spring or summer, making them great soundtracks for heading camping or the beach. His tenth studio album-which again features his band, The Relentless 7-fits that bill. And yes, that's Jackson Browne making a guest appearance.

Moby/Destroyed (Out now): Electronica's favourite bald vegan returns with an album written mostly in hotel rooms in the middle of the night. A chronic insomniac, Moby captures both the peace and loneliness one feels at 3 in the morning in a strange city. Listening to this album in the daytime doesn't feel quite right, but in the middle of the night, it makes all the sense in the world.

GARETH CATTERMOLE/GETTY IMAGES

▶ Eddie Vedder.

Lady Gaga/Born This Way (Monday): Okay, so the artwork is among the ugliest the world has seen (Gaga morphed into an over-the-top chopper motorcycle), but she's sold 16 million albums and 20 million downloads, so no one is about to second guess her. Gaga-mania will continue unabated, especially now that she has GagaVille, her own universe or crystals and unicorns on Facebook.

Thurston Moore/Demolished Thoughts (Tuesday): The tall dude from Sonic Youth had his fourth proper solo album produced by Beck.

It's dark, brooding yet beautiful. Hey, he used a harpist on this record.

Death Cab for Cutie (May 31): Leader Ben Gibbard has been telling anyone who will listen that the band's seventh album will be "a much less guitar-centric album that we've ever made before" and "more Eno" (as in producer Brian Eno. Expect to hear a lot of piano and keyboard textures.

Eddie Vedder/Ukulele Songs (May 31): When you're one of the most famous singers in the world, you can do whatever you want, including recording a solo album where you play the ukulele.

Rumour has it that Eddie originally planned this project as gift to friends and family, but it turned out so well that it's getting a proper release. Haunting yet very, very pretty.

Expressing individuality

Live loud and prosper: Gaga sets example with her unique brand of self

PAT HEALY
SCENE@METRONEWS.CA

Rock 'n' roll and its subgenres have always had an outcast component. Because many of the people making this type of music were misfits growing up, they have occasionally found inspiration in singing about their outsider status.

But where The Who sang, "hope I die before I get old," in their 1965 song, My Generation, singers these days are using a more encouraging tone. Lady Gaga puts her personality on parade by saying that she was Born This Way, and Ke$ha lets her freak flag fly by singing We R Who We R.

Pink is currently telling her listeners, "don't you ever, ever feel like you're less than f—in' perfect" while Katy Perry tells hers that they "don't have to feel like a wasted space" in Firework.

But why are all these women singing so many anthems of individuality all of a sudden? Ke$ha says she thinks it's about awareness.

"The new generation is very affected by the lack of equality"
LADY GAGA

"I wrote We R Who We R because I read about a bunch of teenage boys who killed themselves because they were bullied at school for being 'different,'" she says. "I also wasn't like everyone else in school and was a bit misunderstood. As I've gotten older, I'm happy I wasn't like everyone else. And I wanted these kids to have an anthem that expressed that."

Gaga told Metro that she's seen how the message of Born This Way has moved her younger fans, and when she's talking about their generation it seems to resonate more.

"The new generation is very affected by the lack of equality," she says. "I noticed I had 12- and 13-year-old kids at my shows saying, 'I felt like I didn't belong and couldn't be myself with my family and now there's Born This Way and I have a very easy answer to a very difficult question in my life.'"

Shriver could write a memoir

GETTYIMAGES

▶ Maria Shriver

Her husband may have cheated, but Maria Shriver's story could sell
Why not pen a book about her marriage like these other political wives?

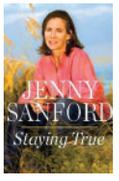
DOROTHY ROBINSON
METRO WORLD NEWS
METRO WORLD NEWS IN NEW YORK

While Maria Shriver continues to deal with the fallout of husband Arnold Schwarzenegger's admission of fathering a child with a long-time staffer, it's important for her to remember that all is not lost: She can always write a memoir! In fact, she'll join an esteemed "wronged political wife" collection of authors. Here, other political wives share what they felt like when they were in the same situation, via excerpts from their books.

Who: Dina Matos Mcgreevey
Title: Silent Partner: A Memoir of My Marriage

The husband's indiscretion: Ex-husband New Jersey Gov. Jim McGreevey admitted to being a "gay American" as he left office in 2004.
Helpful excerpt: "When love goes out the door, courtship stories may go into the attic, never to be told again. It's no fun to recount the birth of a love that died a horrible death. My sadness and yes, my anger, cast long shadows and obscure much that was hopeful and happy."

Who: Jenny Sanford
Title: Staying True



The husband's indiscretion: South Carolina's first lady Jenny Sanford was thrust into the national spotlight in June 2009 when her husband, Gov. Mark Sanford, admitted to travelling to Argentina to visit his lover — a.k.a "hiking the Appalachian Trail."
Helpful excerpt: "What my future held was something I, the woman who always thought years ahead, now couldn't imagine. Could I imagine a life without Mark, the man whose ambitions had been the centre of all that we had done as a family for 20 years?"

Who: Hillary Clinton
Title: Living History

The husband's indiscretion: In case you've forgotten, her husband Bill Clinton had an affair with intern Monica Lewinsky while President of the United States.
Helpful excerpt: "I could hardly breathe. Gulping for air, I started crying and yelling at him, 'What do you mean? What are you saying? Why did you lie to me?'"

Who: Elizabeth Edwards
Title: Resilience: Reflections on the Burdens and Gifts of Facing Life's Adversities

Elizabeth Edwards
Resilience

The husband's indiscretion: Wife of former U.S. Senator John Edwards was outed by the National Enquirer for having an affair with freelance videographer Rielle Hunter in 2007; in 2010, he admitted to fathering a child with her.
Helpful excerpt: "I felt that the ground underneath me had been pulled away. I wanted him to drop out of the race, protect our family from this woman, from his act."

Exacting revenge on a boyfriend

Author turns tables on ex
After having book written about her, she wrote one about him

Hilary Winston hilariously chronicles bad relationships in her collection of essays, My Boyfriend Wrote a Book About Me.

Winston bares it all with comedic flair, from seeing just what her ex-boyfriend thought of their five years together (in a nationally distributed novel, no less) to all the not-so-glorious relationships that came before and after.

How soon after the shock of finding out what your ex-boyfriend wrote did your thoughts turn to revenge?
I would say right away.

Despite everything, you're still in contact with him. What does he think of your book?
He doesn't mind it at all. He's really egocentric; he likes the fact I wrote a book about him.

He did say the hard part was reading about all of the guys after him.

My whole book was a revenge — like mentioning about how he has white nut hair — but that is what really got him.

Shriver having second thoughts?

Maria Shriver has reportedly hired top celebrity divorce lawyer Laura Wasser, whose past clients have included Angelina Jolie, Christina Aguilera and Britney Spears, according to People magazine. But that doesn't necessarily mean that her marriage to Arnold Schwarzenegger is all but done."Maria hasn't decided yet if she wants to end her marriage," a source says, adding that Shriver hired Wasser before news of Schwarzenegger's affair and child with a former housekeeper got out. Kick off backyard barbecue season

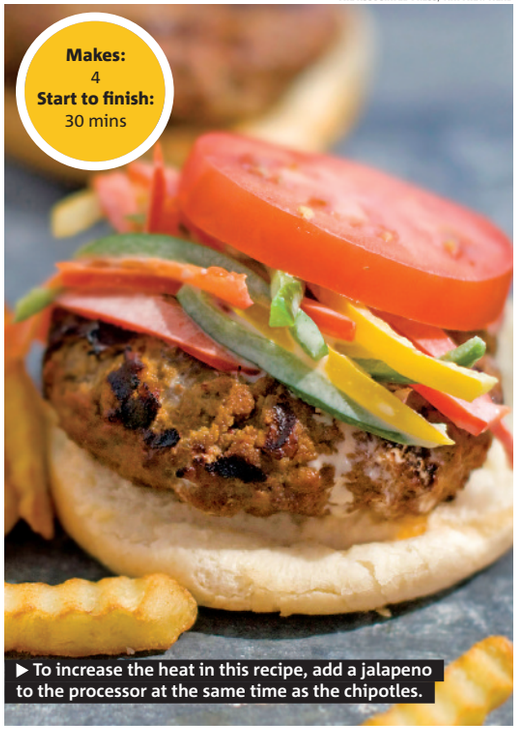
This juicy Chipotle Barbecue Cheeseburger has condiments built right in Not only is it Victoria Day Weekend, it's National Hamburger Month

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS/ MATTHEW MEAD



▶ To increase the heat in this recipe, add a jalapeno to the processor at the same time as the chipotles.

No condiments are needed for this high-flavour barbecue-style cheeseburger; they are built right in.

For ease — and let's face it, awesome taste — I took your basic beef burger and mixed in puréed chipotles in adobo sauce, a healthy splash of barbecue sauce and some garlic. But why stop there? I also stuffed the burger with a mix of cheddar cheese and chopped black olives.

To round it out, I mixed a simple bell pepper slaw to form a creamy-crispy bed for the burger. You can keep it simple by substituting whichever prepared slaw you prefer.

Ingredients:

- 50 ml (1/4 cup) mayonnaise
- 15 ml (1 tbsp) mustard powder
- 15 ml (1 tbsp) honey
- 5 ml (1 tsp) cider vinegar
- 1 red bell pepper, cored and thinly sliced
- 1 green bell pepper, cored and thinly sliced
- 1 yellow bell pepper, cored and thinly sliced
- Salt and ground black pepper
- 2 chipotle peppers in adobo sauce
- 50 ml (1/4 cup) prepared barbecue sauce
- 2 cloves garlic
- 500 g (1 lb) 85 per cent lean ground beef
- 250 ml (1 cup) shredded cheddar cheese
- 50 ml (1/4 cup) finely chopped black olives
- 4 large potato buns, toasted
- 1 large tomato, thickly sliced

Preparation:

1. In bowl, whisk mayo, mustard powder, honey and vinegar. Add all 3 peppers, toss to coat. Season with salt and pepper, then set aside.
2. Heat a grill or grill pan to medium-high.
3. In food processor, combine chipotle peppers, barbecue sauce and garlic. Puree until smooth. Transfer to bowl. Add ground beef, 2 ml (1/2 tsp) salt and 1 ml (1/4 tsp) black pepper, mix.
4. Divide ground beef mixture into quarters. One at a time, form each quarter into a cup in the palm of your hand. Add 50 ml (1/4 cup) of the cheese and a sprinkling of the black olives to the centre of each cup, then push beef over it to completely cover cheese. Carefully form beef into a patty.
5. Coat grill grates with oil. Grill burgers for 8 minutes for medium-well or until desired doneness.
6. Top bottom half of each bun with some pepper slaw, then a burger, then a slice of tomato.

Match made in grill heaven

I'm a bit of a barbecue weenie. At my house, boy meets grill until mid-fall. Then I wheel my gas-fired girl into the garage until Victoria Day.

She's ready to make her 2011 debut this long weekend, and when it comes to picking a wine to match grilled meats, I look for juice that can hold its own against the intensity of the meat, the influence of the marinade and, since I'm a bit of a hamburger aficionado, any condiments I decide to lather on when meat hits bun.

Think young, jammy and red. It's not time to uncork that Bordeaux you've had since midway through the last century. Best bets are Californian zinfandel and merlot, Aussie shiraz, Chilean cabernet sauvignon, and for a taste of the Old World, a Barbera d'Asti from Italy's Piedmont region.

In Argentina, barbecue is a way of life and a red like Trapiche's 2010 Varietals Malbec ($9.00 - $11.99) — with dark, blueberry flavour, balanced tannins and spice trail — is a grill match made in Mendoza. PRICES REFLECT THE RANGE ACROSS CANADA. Have you seen ads like this? "MONEY PROBLEMS?" "CREDIT PROBLEMS? Pay NO interest" "Reduce your debt by up to 80%"

Do they sound too good to be true? That's because they are only telling you HALF OF THE STORY! The procedure you are being sold is called a consumer proposal and may ONLY be administered by a licenced trustee in bankruptcy. After you pay these "consultants" a fee – hundreds, sometimes thousands of dollars – they refer you to a trustee to actually do the work (their ads don't tell you that).

There's no mystery, there's no clever deals or negotiation going on. These guys never actually speak to your creditors. So why are you paying them a fee?

Still not convinced? Their first meeting is free – before you go back a second time and start paying their fees give us a call. We'll walk you through all of your options and then you can decide what's best for you and your family.

One more thing – there are NO upfront fees to file a consumer proposal – if someone wants you to pay a fee BEFORE they file your paperwork then you aren't dealing with the right people!

Escape to wine country

With sandy beaches and almost completely surrounded by water, Prince Edward County makes an ideal spring or summer getaway.

"It's the Hillier shale that makes the wine so good," says Kathy Kennedy, executive director of Taste the County, Prince Edward County's destination marketing organization. "There are lots of dinosaur bits in it. Well, fossils, really."

Fossils may not be the first thing that comes to mind when you think of this burgeoning wine region, but terroir might be.

Terroir, a French term that takes in the land, climate, spirit and culture — is what makes the county so unique.

Friday

4 p.m.: Start with art
Prince Edward County is a magnet for creative spirits. At Oeno Gallery (oenogallery.com), you'll find works by well-known artists like local favourite Otto Donald Rogers.

5 p.m.: Stylish sleeps
Check in to Picton's Claramount Inn & Spa, a restored colonial revival mansion at the edge of Picton Bay (claramountinn.com). The stately white pillars, sunny yellow exterior and full-service spa make it a romantic base.

7 p.m.: Slow food
In a region known for its gastronomy, Angéline's in Bloomfield stands out. Chef Michael Potters combines French traditions with farm-to-table cuisine, serving up dishes like Big Island rabbit with white beans and Lino's prosciutto ($30). angelinesrestaurantinn.com).

10 p.m.: Wine county with a beer past

Saturday

9 a.m.: Wake up and smell the roses
Rent a bike and grab a trail map from the funky Bloomfield Bicycle Company (bloomfieldbicycle.ca).

Noon: From here to Burgundy
Stop by Norman Hardie's winery (normanhardie.com) and pair your pinot with an oven-roasted pizza.

2 p.m.: Wine with a view
Sandbanks Estate Winery is an unpretentious winery with a veranda and onsite art gallery. The estate has garnered a fistful of awards for its rich red Baco Noir. (sandbankswinery.com).

COURTESY TASTE THE COUNTY

▶ Prince Edward county is located 2.5 hours east of Toronto and almost completely surrounded by Lake Ontario.

4 p.m. Body break
Take some spa time and enjoy the Claramount Inn's heated saltwater pool. French doors from the glass-roofed pool house open onto a patio and a short path leads to an outdoor Jacuzzi.

8 p.m. Season's eatings.
You'll find the best of the county's produce at the Merrill Inn's restaurant (merrillinn.com), where chef Michael Sullivan serves seasonal specialties like a smoked trout amandine starter ($9) and roast Ontario rack of lamb ($32).

Sunday

10 a.m. Eco cheese
Don't eat too much for breakfast or you won't have room for cheese. Fifth Town Artisan Cheese Company (fifthtown.ca) is a sustainable facility on the county's eastern ridge that uses fresh local goat, sheep and cow's milk to produce its handmade cheeses.

Boston regains defensive prowess

Seguin scores again after sitting out first two rounds of playoffs

BRUINS	LIGHTNING
2	0

Tim Thomas made 31 saves for his first playoff shutout this season and rookie Tyler Seguin scored his fourth goal in the last three games as the Boston Bruins beat the Tampa Bay Lightning 2-0 in Game 3 of the NHL Eastern Conference finals Thursday night.

Thomas, the favourite to win the Vezina Trophy as the top regular-season goalie, gave up nine goals in the first two games of the series that the Bruins lead 2-1.

Seguin made it 2-0 from in-close at 8:12 of the third as the puck trickled between the legs of Lightning goalie Dwayne Roloson and into the net. The 19-year-old Seguin was inserted into the lineup to replace an injured Patrice Bergeron in Game 1 and has seven points overall.

David Krejci also scored for the Bruins.

Bergeron was back in the lineup after missing two games because of a concussion sustained when he was hit by Philadelphia's Claude Giroux in the final game of the second round.

Krejci was alone in the low slot and opened the scoring on a backhander just 1:09 into the first. Boston is 7-0 during the post-season when scoring the first goal of the game.

Krejci was briefly shaken up late in the first when he was hit in the neutral zone by Tampa Bay defenceman Marc-Andre Bergeron, who received a minor penalty for elbowing.

Both teams were looking to play tighter defence after combining for 18 goals in the first two games.

Tampa Bay centre Steven Stamkos said before the game that the Lightning wanted to avoid "run-and-gun hockey." Boston centre Brad Marchand added that both teams hoped to "buckle down" on defence.

Game 4 is Saturday in Tampa.

Double. Up

▶ Jays DH Eric Thames and Rays second baseman Sean Rodriguez get tangled up Thursday in a double play.

THE CANADIAN PRESS

Jays' bats come through

J.P. Arencibia hit a two-run homer Thursday to snap a 1-1 tie in the seventh as the Toronto Blue Jays beat the Tampa Bay Rays 3-2. Juan Rivera also homered for the Jays (22-21). Toronto starter Ricky Romero allowed three hits over seven innings for the win.

Germany's Prinz of players

FIELD OF PLAY

SCOTT RUSSELL
TORONTO@METRONEWS.CA

At the training camp for Germany's national women's football team in Bitburg, not far from the Luxembourg border, there's a photographer trying to get a shot of the queen of European soccer.

Birgit Prinz isn't playing along. The 33-year-old striker, the most prolific player in FIFA Women's World Cup history, lets her teammates pose and waits until the circus is over before emerging from the clubhouse.

"For me it's never been about personal goals," Prinz remarks. "It's always been about being part of this team."

Her English is remarkable given that she rarely encounters an interview in anything other than her mother tongue. Such is the modest nature of acclaim granted to arguably the greatest women's soccer player in the annals of the game.

Prinz, you see, is approaching her fifth World Cup. She has been the champion twice and holds the record for goals scored in World Cup matches with 14. She has played at four Olympics and won the bronze medal three times. For good measure, add three consecutive years as FIFA World Player of the Year from 2003-05 and 208 international matches in 16 years as the German stalwart.

CHRISTOF KOEPSEL/BONGARTS/GETTY IMAGES

▶ Birgit Prinz

Prinz has done it all.

Now she gets to compete in a World Cup at home and take her place as a much appreciated legend in a football-mad nation.

"I never had female role models when I was first playing this sport," Prinz admits. "I looked up to the guys who played in the Bundesliga. They were my role models. Girls need role models, too. If I am one now than that makes me happy."

A practising physiotherapist and student of psychology who has been vocal in promoting the humanitarian aims of FIFA, Prinz has achieved all her goals and then some. Just ask former teammate Stefi Jones, the president and CEO of the FIFA Women's World Cup 2011 organizing committee.

"Birgit is my hero," says Jones. "She's not as fast as she once was and doesn't score as much. She just makes everyone around her better."

That's what heroes do, and make no mistake, Prinz is football royalty.

She is the undisputed queen of football in this country and probably throughout the world. When she plays against Canada to open the World Cup at Olympic Stadium in Berlin before 70,000 fans, Prinz will finally receive the undivided attention of her loyal subjects.

Send a KISS

You can now post your kiss, and read even more kisses, online at metronews.ca/kiss.

M'Lady,
You're the first thing i think of when i wake up and the last thing before i go to sleep. The best parts of my day are when i spend them with you. I love making you smile, its beatiful just like you. I can't wait to make more memories with you.
XOX YOUR EXCELLENCY

Johnny Hopkins
John, i still love you :(D

D,
Why do you continue to play with my feelings? I think you have a girlfriend, so why lead me on at the office when you suspect that my feelings for you are stronger. I don't want to be the object of your attention at work when outside of work someone else holds that place. I have a heart too, and it is breakable...

Today's horoscope

For today's crossword answers and for expanded horoscopes, go to metronews.ca

♈ Aries March 21-April 20 A feud that has lingered too long will erupt. You must finally deal with it.

♉ Taurus April 21-May 21 Do you work with someone who shares your ambitions even if you disagree on details, or do you let those details ruin things?

♊ Gemini May 22-June 21 You don't lack energy, but are you channeling it in the right direction?

♋ Cancer June 22-July 22 Be ruthless with yourself. Cut out of your life everything that does not take you closer to your No. 1 goal.

♌ Leo July 23-Aug.23 You mean well but sometimes you try to force others to do what you think is best.

♍ Virgo Aug. 24- Sept. 22 You seem to believe that you can get away with anything at the moment. Don't get carried away.

♎ Libra Sept. 23-Oct. 23 You need to make more of your talents — and you need to make sure you get paid what you are worth.

♏ Scorpio Oct. 24-Nov. 22 Something for which you once had high hopes longer excites you. There's no shame in moving on.

♐ Sagittarius Nov. 23-Dec. 21 It's time to get serious about something that in the past you thought of as a bit of a game.

♑ Capricorn Dec. 22-Jan. 20 . Make sure others know who is in charge: you. Crack the whip.

♒ Aquarius Jan. 21-Feb. 18 Some people have doubts that you have what it takes to succeed. Show your competitive side.

♓ Pisces Feb. 19-March 20. You don't have to ask permission if you want to get away for a few hours. Nature heals. SALLY BROMPTON
